

Jennifer Naomi Eaglin, PhD

230 Annie and John Glenn Ave.

146 Dulles Hall

Columbus, OH 43210

(614) 292-2613

eaglin.5@osu.edu

EDUCATION

2015                    PhD, Department of History
Michigan State University

Dissertation: “Sweet Fuel: Ethanol’s Socio-Political Origins in Ribeirão Preto, São Paulo, 1933-1985”

Areas of specialization: alternative energy, emerging markets, Brazil, international economics, agricultural planning

2009                    MA, International Relations
Johns Hopkins University- School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS)
Research Topics: “Mexico, Ethanol, Trade Liberalization and the Poor” and “Ethanol in the 21st Century: The United States, Brazil, and Latin America”

2005                    BA, History and Spanish
Spelman College
Summa Cum Laude, Phi Beta Kappa

PROFESSIONAL APPOINTMENTS

Fall 2016-             Assistant Professor of Environmental History/Sustainability
Present                Department of History
The Ohio State University

PUBLICATIONS

Book Reviews

2017                    Susanna Hecht, The Scramble for the Amazon and the "Lost Paradise" of Euclides da Cunha, H-LATAM (February), <https://www.h-net.org/reviews/showpdf.php?id=47496>

2017                    Robert Wilcox, Cattle in the Backlands: Mato Grosso and the Evolution of Ranching in the Brazilian Tropics, Luso-Brazilian Review

Manuscripts in Submission

2017                    “‘The Alcohol is Ours’: Lessons in Twentieth Century Brazilian State-Led Energy Development”
Status: Submitted for review, Latin American Research Review

- 2017 “Resource Scarcity Management and Shifting Modes of Governance: The Brazilian Ethanol Program, Environmental Shocks, and Sugar Shortages, 1985-1990”
Status: Revise and Resubmit, Environmental History Journal

Manuscripts in Preparation

- 2017 Sweet Fuel: The Troubled Origins of Brazil's Ethanol Industry

GRANTS, FELLOWSHIPS, and AWARDS

National

- 2017 Thayer Short-Term Research Fellowship, UCLA Library Special Collections
2016 Lewis Hanke Post-Doctoral Award, Conference of Latin American History, Best Project to Transform to a Book
2014-2015 MMUF (Mellon-Mays Undergraduate Fellowship) Dissertation Completion Fellowship
2012-2013 IIE Fulbright Fellowship
2010 FLAS (Foreign Language and Studies) Summer Fellowship
2010 James R. Scobie Award, Conference of Latin American History Grant for Summer Research
2008-2009 National Security Education Program Boren Fellowship

Internal

- 2017 Ohio State University Mershon Faculty Research Grant

Select Graduate and Undergraduate Fellowships

- 2009-2014 University Distinguished Fellowship Recipient, Michigan State University
2003-2005 UNCF Mellon-Mays Undergraduate Fellowship, Spelman College

ACADEMIC CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS (Selections)

- 2017 American Society of Environmental History (ASEH) Annual Conference, “Resource Scarcity Management and Shifting Modes of Governance: Brazilian Ethanol, Environmental Shocks, and Sugar Shortages, 1985-1990”
- 2017 131st Annual American Historical Association (AHA) Conference, “‘O Petroleo Tem Que Ser Nosso’ (The Oil Must Be Ours): The Cultural Meaning of the Deepwater Oil Reserves”
- 2016 Centre Alexandre-Koyré, Paris, International Brazilian Environmental History Workshop, “Changing the Tides: Rural Cane Workers and the Guariba Strikes of 1984”
- 2016 Portland State University, Business and Environmental History Workshop, “The End of Proálcool and the Rise of the Neoliberal State: The Brazilian Ethanol Industry in Ribeirão Preto, São Paulo, 1985-1990”

- 2014 12th International Brazilian Studies Association (BRASA) Conference
Panel Chair: "Sugarcane Policy in 20th century Brazil: From Cane Fields to Ethanol Distilleries, 1933-1990"
Presentation: “Rural Workers Strike Back: Ethanol, Field Workers, and the Guariba Strikes of 1984 in Ribeirão Preto, São Paulo”
- 2013 Michigan AGEP Alliance Conference, “The Rise of the Ethanol Industry in 20th Century Brazil”
- 2011 Rocky Mountain Conference on Latin American Studies, “The IAA: Mid-20th Century State Reformation of the Brazilian Sugar Industry”

INVITED TALKS

- 2017 “The Demise of the Brazilian Ethanol Program: Environmental and Economic Shocks, 1985-1990”
Miami University of Ohio, Global and Intercultural Studies Department
- 2016 “The Global Politics of Food and Agriculture: The Case of Brazilian Ethanol”
Pomona College, Political Science Department
- 2014 “Federal and State Involvement in the Foundations of the Brazilian Ethanol Industry - 1933/1985”
Pomona College, Claremont Africana Studies Lecture Series

SERVICE

Research

- 2015 Graduate Research Intern, The Climate Institute
- Research biofuel Jet propulsion project development in Brazil, US, and Latin America

Conferences Organized

- 2015 Mellon-Mays Undergraduate Fellowship (MMUF) Consultant, Pomona College
- Coordinate inaugural MMUF Orientation for the Claremont Consortium Colleges
  - Develop long-term MMUF program objectives
  - Foster connections with MMUF alumni in the greater Los Angeles region

Conference Presenter

- 2017 Guest Panelist, “Recent PhDs,” SSRC-UNCF/Mellon Graduate Conference

2015                      Invited Speaker, UNCF/Mellon Mentors and Coordinators Conference
                                  “Seeking Roles as Transformative Agents as Scholars and Teachers”

Departmental/University Service

Undergraduate Teaching Committee, 2016-2017

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

American Historical Association (AHA)

Conference on Latin American History Association (CLAH)

American Society of Environmental History (ASEH)

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

Portuguese:    Advanced reading, writing, and speaking skills

Spanish:        Advanced composition and reading, proficient speaking